Unclaimed Property Search Report

Sample report — prepared for Jane A. Doe (fictional sample client) · Search date: October 2026 · All 50 state programs searched

Search summary

We searched the official unclaimed-property programs of all 50 states under the client's current name, prior names, and prior addresses in New York, Florida, and California. The search located 4 probable matches totaling an estimated $1,140 – $1,690 in state-reported ranges. Each match below names the holding state, the type of property, and the company or institution that reported it — the same information shown in a real client report.

Matches found

State	Property type	Reported by	Amount range	Next step
New York	Dormant savings account	Regional bank (name in full report)	$500 – $750	Claim filed — ID verified
New York	Uncashed payroll check (2019)	Former employer, retail chain	$100 – $250	Claim filed — proof of address needed
Florida	Utility deposit refund	Electric utility provider	$40 – $90	Ready to file — signature form
California	Insurance premium refund	Auto insurer	$500 – $600	Claim filed — documents accepted

States report amounts in ranges for privacy; the exact figure is confirmed by the state when the claim is approved. A 'probable match' means the name and at least one additional identifier (prior address or partial account reference) align with the client's details.

What happens next

- We file for you: each claim is submitted to the holding state with the documentation that state requires — no client paperwork marathons.
- Documents we may ask for: a government ID, proof of a prior address (an old bill or statement), and — for inherited property — estate documents. We tell you exactly which item unlocks which claim.
- Timelines: most states decide claims in 30–180 days. Your report's tracking table is updated as each state responds, and you are notified at every status change.
- Fees, plainly: the $49 search fee covers the 50-state search and this report. The 15% recovery fee applies only to money actually recovered — if a claim is denied, that claim costs you nothing further.

Scope and limitations

This search covers state-administered unclaimed-property programs (the same official sources behind missingmoney.com and state treasury sites). It does not cover federal sources such as unclaimed tax refunds or pension guaranties, which are noted in the full report when relevant. Records depend on what holders have reported to each state; property reported under a misspelled name can require a follow-up variant search, which is included in the search fee. This fictional sample illustrates the format and detail of a real Funds Recovery report.
